Re: United States v. Pauline Beckham
16 Cr. 265 (JMF)

July 23, 2021

Dear Judge Furman,

I write on behalf of my client, Pauline Beckham to request an adjournment of the Violation of Supervised Release hearing currently scheduled for July 28, 2021. Defense Counsel has a conflict that day and cannot appear due to a personal matter. I have spoken with Thomas Burnett on behalf of the Government and he consents to this request. Subject to the Court's schedule, the Parties are available for an in-person court proceeding on July 30, 2021 and August 2 and 6, 2021.

At this proceeding, it is anticipated that Ms. Beckham will enter a guilty plea to one of the specifications charged, based on an agreement with the Government and Probation. We will request that the Court impose sentence immediately thereafter. The parties will have a joint recommendation for sentencing, requesting that the Court consider a term of non-incarceration based on Ms. Beckham's significant progress and success towards her rehabilitation since our last court proceeding.

Respectfully submitted,

Robert M. Baum
Assistant Federal Defender
